

Water is part of any production process.

We need it to grow apples, as well as produce a packet of crisps.

The amount of water needed in this process depends where we are because climate and agricultural practices will be the most important players.

1 tomato

13
litres

HOW MUCH WATER IS

1 potato

25
litres

NEEDED TO PRODUCE

1 cup of tea

35

litres

1 slice of bread

40

litres

1 glass of wine

120

litres

1 glass of beer

75
litres

1 glass of apple juice

190

litres

1 glass of orange juice

170

litres

1 cup of coffee

140

litres

1 glass of milk

200
litres

